Last year the week corresponding to the one which we are now in, contained some phenomenally hot days. As things go, the weather grows more and more productive as a source of remark and conjecture. One of our "travelling" townsmen happened along at a county fair just up in the Empire State and was pleased to notice that the farmers came in to town carefully protected from the rigors with fur-lined top coats, which precaution was perhaps justifiable as there was an unmistakable showing of ice in the vicinity.

The twelfth anniversary of Eureka Lodge No. 46, Knights of Pythias, was celebrated in the lodge room in Central Building on Tuesday night. A large number of the members and their friends were present. The following programme prepared by the entertainment committee was carried out:

Two of the Candidates for President of the United States, William McKinley and William J. Bryan are members of the order of Knights of Pythias.

Rev. George J. Roessler was a student in the German Theological Seminary until a few months ago. He received a call from the German Lutheran Church which was organized. There was some difficulty with the congregation and he was asked to resign. This he at first refused to do but, when he arrived at the house of worship last Sunday morning, he found the door locked and no preparations made for the regular service. Having a duplicate key he gained admission and preached to about a dozen persons. The trustees of the church became dissatisfied because he was not a regular minister of the Lutheran church which he claimed to be. Pastor Roessler desired to join the North American Synod after the congregation passed a resolution for membership in the New York Synod.

The new German congregation of which Rev. George J. Roessler is pastor, held a meeting at 41 Prospect Street, Watessing, on Wednesday night and elected the following trustees: Nicholas Hainbacher, Albert Gland, Joseph Buck, William Dotzner, Jacob Hainbacher, John Stedemann.

An Important Furniture Sale.

The well known and old established furniture store of H. E. Miller, successor John Jelliff & Co., of Newark, recently sold their entire stock of elegantly carved, sturdy built furniture (hand work throughout) to Amos H. Van Horn, Ltd., also of Newark.

This latter firm, with their characteristic enterprise, have just introduced a magnificent line of stock at 75 per cent less than the actual cost incurred in its manufacture. The woods which have been used in constructing this furniture are rarely beautiful, and the whole assortment, which represents everything in the furniture way, is worthy the highest praise.

Detailed announcement of this sale will be found elsewhere in these columns.

THE HARD FACTS

Of the case any that for the cheapest first class hardware for domestic and other purposes our stock claims first place by a long distance. The fact that every article we sell is so good explains why it will stand such hard wear, and stand it so long before it wears out.

If there is anything people like to have come in small sizes its prices. Our figures come that way, and all who come our way come out handily.

We want to call your attention to our Oil Heating Stoves, just the thing for cool evenings, from $4.30 up.
